Local Information

Fremantle	Notre Dame's beachside Campus is located in the historic West End of Fremantle, in Western Australia. Housed within beautiful restored heritage buildings, it provides the ambience of a town university with great character and charm. The iconic Campus is close to the Fremantle Harbour – the gateway to the famous quokka selfie at Rottnest Island, all major transport hubs, cafés and restaurants that reflect the truly multicultural lifestyle of the port city, one-off fashion boutiques and specialty shops. A range of music, cultural and food festivals add a constant buzz to the European village-style atmosphere.
Sydney	Notre Dame's Sydney Campus is located across two sites, both in the vibrant social hub of the city: Our Broadway site is located at the heart of Sydney's university district, a short walk from Central train station, close to Darling Harbour and also near the city's famous Chinatown district and Spice Alley. It is home to our Schools of Arts &amp; Sciences, Business, Education, Law and Philosophy &amp; Theology. Notre Dame's Medicine and Nursing students are located on the Darlinghurst site – nestled in Sydney's famous shopping district and showcasing the world's leading fashion brands and cafés that set the benchmark for Australia's café culture.
